Management of special wastes:

- Only stable substances, correctly sealed and labelled will be accepted.
- Chemical residues are accepted if they are stable, in the original container with a readable label and sealed with the original cap.
- Respect incompatibilities (a same code does not mean that wastes can be mixed).

Management of contaminated material: Any sharp/peaked item and glassware must be put into rigid labelled containers.